"Torpina"

erately chosen amid the pine barrens and crawfish flats of Henrico county, Virginia.

In the heart of this poverty-stricken region he expended in wages alone more than half a million dollars, only to awaken to the fact that he had nour ished a tribe of callow communists—corrupt, cunning, shameless, unclean and shyster-led.

He will cheerfully disappoint the rapacity of these creatures.

He will cheerfully disappoint the rapacity of these creatures.

He will cheerfully disappoint the rapacity of these creatures.

He will leave nothing for them to prevaricate over or scramble for. Fifty years is enough to throw away on a group of hopeless lagrates.

He will neither blow out his brains nor abandon the country, but will go on with his oasis and will call up a colony of black men to advance his suspended enterprise.

All of these organizations have made every effort to see that not a single household in the city is without it Christmas cheer, and it was said last night that there is every reason to be-lieve that none of the city's poor has been overlooked.

GOVERNOR MANN SPEAKS

Tells School Boys That They, Too, May Be Governor Some Day.

Governor William Hodges Mann yesterday addressed the children of Randolph School at their Christmas exercises, held in the schoolhouse. The Governor made an interesting speech telling mainly of his difficulties as a school boy. He assured the boys that with modern advantages each one of them stood a far better chance of being Governor of the State than he did at their age. The Governor was introduced by the principal, W. H. Cooke.

introduced by the principal, W. H. Cooke,

The hall was crowded with parents and friends of the children, and after the Governor's speech there was singing by the school chorus and several short plays were acted by the pupils. The exercises took place at 1 o'clock, after which the school closed for the holidays.
